To haul fast passenger trains in the highly frequented D-train network, the Deutsche Reichsbahn ordered a total of 55 series 01.10 locomotives in 1939. The significant advantage of the express steam locomotive was that it could reach a maximum speed of 140 km/h. When used with long-distance passenger trains, the locomotives were able to keep, even on inclined rail sections, a constant speed of 100 km/ h.
