Goods train baggage wagon, type Dih, of the Austrian Federal Railways.

New Design 2022!

- Delicately designed model with extra applied plug-in parts
- Stairs on the baggage compartment doors in original width
- Version with roof pulpit

The DRB built the type Pwgs 41 baggage wagons in the 1940s. Their design was based on baggage wagon building principles of passenger trains. After the Second World War, the wagons that remained in Austria were used in both passenger and goods trains.
